(O.R.C. 2933.23)

STATE OF OHIO

SS:

COUNTY OF MERCER

The affiant, Ron Waltmire, a law enforcement officer, and applicant for search warrant, states the following facts and circumstances.

The property listed below, to be searched for and seized, may assist in a criminal investigation. The property to be searched and seized is believed to be located at the place to be searched.

The property to be searched for and seized is described as follows:

All subscriber information, billing records, call detail records, incoming and outgoing calls and toll records and text messages for the period of November 2, 2015 to November 5, 2015.

Any and all stored electronic communications, including, but not limited to any personal communications opened and unopened, e-mail messages, instant messages, text messages, letters, voice mail, and other electronic records, documents, correspondence stored and or exchanged in electronic form, notes and memoranda.

The above described property being that listed in Ohio Rule of Criminal procedure 41(B).

The place to be searched is described as follows:

VERIZON WIRELESS, The telephone number (419) 305-0187, currently preserved by Verizon Wireless.

Probable cause for the issuance of a search warrant is based upon the following facts and circumstances.

On November 4th, 2015 at approx. 0937 hrs, the Celina Police Department and Celina squad responded to [REDACTED] Upon arrival, we located a deceased [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was found by her the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] found him deceased at about 0900 hrs.

Through the investigation, a Jeffrey Rasawehr [REDACTED] he had communications with [REDACTED] via text messaging on the previous evening. The last communication would have been around 2000 hrs. and [REDACTED]. Rasawehr stated that there were text messages between the two that may have an impact on the investigation. Rasawehr provided his phone number of [REDACTED] and that the provider is Verizon Wireless.

The affiant further states that, based upon his training and experience as a law enforcement officer and cellular telephone user, cellular telephones are capable of storing and transmitting personal communications including but not limited to opened and unopened e-mail messages, instant messages, text messages, letters, voice mails, and other electronic records, documents, notes, memoranda, address lists, telephone directories, screen names, buddy lists, telexes, faxes, photographs or images that are stored and or exchanged by the cellular telephone in an electronic form. He also states that much of this information is retained by the cellular service provider and that he has contacted Verizon Wireless and requested that the records for Mr. Rasawehr's cellular telephone be preserved.
